AWARD PROCESS

Nominations:

Nominations must be submitted online via CCES' webpage by a peer.

The nomination process is simple - identify yourself and the Chamber executive you want to nominate, and provide a brief summary of why your nominee deserves this recognition. You can include links to news articles, personal experiences, and any other information to highlight your nominee.

After the deadline closes, the Chair of CCES will notify all nominees.

Award Package:

All nominees must provide an award package that will be shared on CCES website and circulated to CCES' membership. All sensitive information will be kept confidential.

Award packages must include all information. Please organize your submission using the headings below. Submissions should be no longer than 2,000 words.

Late packages will not be accepted.

Online Voting:

The award recipient is chosen by Chamber Network peer vote. The nominee with the most votes will win!

Each member of CCES can cast 1 vote during the voting period. For greater clarity, when casting their Chamber's vote, the voter will be asked to confirm their name and Chamber.

AWARD PACKAGE REQUIREMENTS

Award packages should include all outlined areas of importance, and any additional details that highlight your unique approach to serving your local business community. Submissions should be no longer than 2,000 words.

Chamber Management & Operations:

- Provide an overview of your Chamber (number of people employed, programs and services offered, key strengths and weaknesses, unique partnerships)
- Describe your work with the Chamber, highlighting your Chamber's biggest achievements
- Describe your contributions to staff and volunteer development (teambuilding, maintaining a positive workplace, ensuring good governance, mentorship). If you are the only staff person at your Chamber, describe how you work with the Board of Directors to fulfill your Chamber's mission.
- Describe your Chamber's financial success, highlighting your work to support long-term financial sustainability. If you have run a deficit in one of the past 3 years, explain why.

Membership Retention, Engagement & Growth:

- Provide an overview of your Chamber's membership trends over the past 3 years (may include: membership growth, decline or remaining the same, retention rates, key cancellation trends, priority markets, changes to membership dues or structure)
- Explain your efforts to attract and retain members

Delivering Innovative Programs and Services:

- Describe any new programs, services or partnerships that have been developed under your leadership, highlighting your most innovative achievements
- List your Chamber's key programming and include participation data (number of participants, number of sponsors, number of partners, etc.)
